Jeff Gordon Children's Foundation (JGCF) is recognized as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) and supports the research of leading pediatric oncologists and researchers across the United States, regardless of location or hospital affiliation, and helps bring more effective, less toxic treatments to children facing all types of pediatric cancer. JGCF's mission is to support children battling cancer by funding programs that improve patients' quality of life, treatment programs that increase survivorship, and pediatric medical research dedicated to finding cures. JGCF received a determination letter by the IRS classifying the organization as a public charity described in section 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Code as of January 1, 2011. On the basis of support received during taxable years 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, and 2019, in the aggregate, JGCF received at least 33 1/3 percent of its support from contributions made directly or indirectly by the general public. In 2020, JGCF fell below the 33 1/3 percent support test dropping to 32.04%, but JGCF qualified as a publicly supported organization based on 2019. For taxable years 2021 and 2022, JGCF has attracted public support to qualify under the facts and circumstances test of Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) based on 1) its support from public sources (now at 22.77%, it is well above the 10% threshold for the facts and circumstances test and the public support percentage increased over 2021), 2) its fundraising program, 3) the type of broad and diverse support JGCF regularly solicits and receives from the general public, 4) future fundraising plans, and 5) consideration of other relevant factors described in Treas. Reg. Sec. 1.170A-9(f)(3). Additionally, JGCF has a governing body which represents the interests of the public and not private interests, and it has a variety of charitable and research programs that directly serve to benefit the general public.

Attraction of Public Support

JGCF is organized and operated to attract new and additional public support on a continuous basis. JGCF accepts and receives donations through various means including email, social media, website, and partnerships with like-minded organizations. The website includes information on providing donations through various means, including both a one-time contribution as well as a recurring monthly giving program known as THE FUEL. These donations are primarily solicited through a series of calendared seasonal and opportunistic fundraising campaigns created and conducted by the organization. JGCF also solicits contributions as part of its annual car program (as further described below). JGCF is registered, on a nationwide basis, to solicit contributions from the public. The process for annual renewal involves significant time and resources, thus showing JGCF's commitment to continually growing and broadening its solicitation program. JGCF's Executive Director directs the program of solicitation and reports on her activities regularly with the JGCF board. JGCF maintains a donor management system in which 59,680 donors are tracked. Based on the foregoing, JGCF reasonably anticipates it will be able to attract more funding from the general public in the future.

In addition to the fundraising described above, JGCF receives other revenue from its annual car program. This program also receives contributions from a nationwide group of individuals of the general public, however this type of support is not included in the numerator of the public support calculation on Form 990, Schedule A.

Contributors to the car program are also given the option to make an additional donation to JGCF and/or also donate to cover credit card transaction fees incurred by JGCF and most elect to do so.

-92% of the car program's participants chose to cover the transaction costs with a separate donation

-$19,862 of additional charitable contributions were made to JGCF by the car program's participants during the car program

-After the program was completed, these participants also donated $126,714 in additional charitable contributions to other JGCF programs outside of the car program

-In 2022, out of the 59,680 active donors in its donor database, 13,075 contributed in some way to JGCF's mission
